Talent & Executive Search Factsheet

ABN AMRO

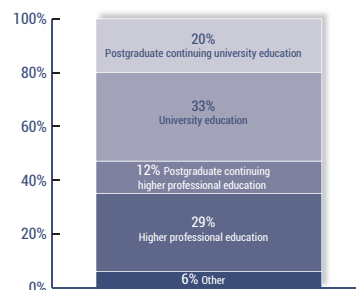

John Bendermacher
Chief Audit Executive

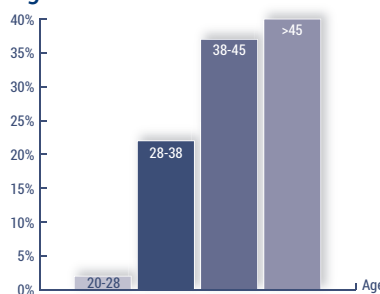

In my position as Chief Audit Executive, first at Robeco and then at SNS REAAL and ABN AMRO, I have been a customer since Corbulo started out. The main reason for this long-term relationship is that Corbulo has a 'nose' for good candidates. Quickly after the first intake interview, in which I expressed my preference for a particular type of auditor (pro-active, audacious, wanting to make a difference, etc.), they presented almost only CVs of candidates matching that profile. That really makes the search much easier and gives me good value for money. Even now that we sometimes ask several recruiters for CVs and do so without our logo, it turns out that many of the best candidates come from Corbulo.
